Mata Tigre in the vicinity of the Campana Nuevo corregimiento, on the side of the Troncal Caribe highway, reported in the regional newspaper El Herald.

Apparently, the murder of these two people it would be related to the purchase of land in the mentioned municipality of La Guajira, that the deceased wanted to dedicate to agriculture, they added in the Caribbean newspaper.

Luna was a prominent union leader in the oil sector and became a leader of the Unión Sindical Obrera (USO) in the Tibú branch (North of Santander) and is currently affiliated with the National Association of Oil Pensioners of Colombia (Andepetrol), indicated in the Institute of Studies for Development and Peace (Indepaz).

In the 1980s and 1990s he was persecuted, threatened and suffered attempts on his life by paramilitaries for his union work, and he was even the victim of legal persecution and imprisoned, the Andipetrol National Board of Directors said in a statement.

"Historical and exemplary fighter of the old USO. It was always characterized by being in the front line in the hardest moments of the union organization, in the paramilitary and institutional attack of the governments and administrations of ECOPETROL (sic)", they expressed in the letter.

In fact, in El Herald they highlighted that the alleged judicial setups of which he would have been a victim, and which resulted in their being unjustly deprived of their liberty, they were consigned by a Human Rights organization and presented before the Special Jurisdiction for Peace (JEP).

Meanwhile, Senator Gloria Flórez of the Pacto Histórico repudiated this new crime by a social leader in the country, through her account Twitter official: "Comrade Nicodemus Luna, former USO leader in Tibú and Ecopetrol pensioner, who had been doing social and community work, was murdered. Total rejection of this crime by the enemies of Peace (sic)".

Along the same lines, and along with a photo of the former USO leader, Iván Cepeda, a congressman also from the current government coalition, expressed his condolences: "They denounce the murder of Nicodemus Luna at the hands of paramilitaries. I express my solidarity to @usofrenteobrero and her family (sic)".

For this last weekend of November the macabre counter of murders of social leaders in Colombia it reaches 10 victims with the homicide of Luna, which adds to those of Oswaldo Eliecer Duglas Bula, killed in the vicinity of the El Recuerdo urbanization, in the south of the city of Montería (Córdoba); and that of Efraín Sánchez Durán, whose life was violently taken in Barrancabermeja (Santander). The two crimes were perpetrated on the night of Friday, November 25.

Prior to these homicides, last week the crimes of Alberto Quina, an indigenous leader who perished in a massacre that took place in Cajibío (Cauca) on Sunday, November 20; Mario Oscar Solarte, murdered on Thursday, November 17 in Buenaventura (Valle del Cauca), and Carlos Andrés Posada who was killed on Monday, November 14 in Ituango (Antioquia).
