BOGOTÁ - Cenit, una subsidiaria de la compañía petrolera estatal colombiana Ecopetrol, permitirá a los productores de petróleo en el país andino reducir sus tarifas de transporte en un 50% durante dos meses, dijo el miércoles.

Ante un colapso del precio del petróleo, Cenit ofrecerá a los productores de petróleo financiamiento mediante el cual pueden reducir las tarifas de su oleoducto en mayo y junio en un 50% antes de pagar el 50% restante a partir de septiembre, dijo la compañía en un comunicado.
