"We started working on health, aerospace, science and technology issues and of course, culture issues and soft diplomacy. And why culture? Because it has also been key during my tenure, as India has so much to offer not only to Indians but to the world. And so, I think one of my goals and results is that I created a space called Casa Colombia – Casa is home and house in Spanish for all Indians and for everyone to have a space to learn more about Colombian culture," the outgoing envoy added.
