If you are a college student looking for internships, this information is for you: Ecopetrol, the country's largest company, has opened calls for young people who want to further develop their practical or productive phase in the company.

There are 336 jobs in 24 cities and areas where Ecopetrol operates in the country. And the vacancies apply to the first semester of 2024.

"Through the process, Ecopetrol wants to select young people who want to contribute with their talent to the challenges presented by the energy transition, renewable energy, innovation and sustainability," the company explained.
