This Saturday, February 3, the President of the Republic, Gustavo Petro, was shown in a real incident when he got agitated in his speech and 'told them everything', but for a fake account of the Attorney General Francisco Barbosa.

The message from Barbosa's fake account said: "The Prosecutor's Office will bring serious charges against Ricardo Roa, former Petro campaign manager and today president of Ecopetrol, and Dagoberto Quiroga, head of Colombia Humana and superintendent of services today in the presidential race. Public, and William Wellandia from Fecode.

Petro, clearly upset, expressed: "Desperation for a democratic alternative in the prosecutor's office leads Barbosa to attack progressivism."
