CD congressman called Ángela María Robledo “ignorant” for criticizing the “cow” of Antioquia

March 28, 2024

Former congresswoman Angela María Robledo, through her department. In the post, Robledo talked about the contribution of the Clan del Golfo to it. Faced with the latter, the representative of the Chamber of the Democratic Center Hernán Cadavid responded by criticizing the fact that she had recently been appointed to the board of directors of Ecopetrol.

And, in response to Robledo's criticism in his publication, the Democratic Center congressman ironically mentioned that said questioning of the initiative of the Government led by Julián Rendón came from an expert in the hydrocarbon sector, referring to his new position within Ecopetrol.

“This is the new hydrocarbon expert and member of the Board of Directors of the most important public company in Colombia. “A complete ignoramus on the matter,” she responded in her X Cadavid account to the Ecopetrol board.

Regarding the words of Ángela María Robledo mentioned above about the cow for the roads of Antioquia, the former congresswoman said that: “The Clan del Golfo certifies that it contributed to the donation proposed by Julián Rendón @GobAntioquia for the roads of the Department. “It means paying attention to the orders of your boss @AlvaroUribeVel.”

On the other hand, this has not been the only criticism that has been made of Robledo for occupying a position on the board of directors of Ecopetrol, in fact the Radical Change party also mentioned this issue, who also pointed out that the former legislator He did not have the necessary experience to be in the position, in addition to commenting that the Colombian company's profits had already decreased.

"The "change" government of @petrogustavo, not content with decreasing Ecopetrol's profits, has now appointed Ángela María Robledo to its Board of Directors. Your experience in hydrocarbons? He organized an event on "Venezuelan oil social programs," said the community opposed to the national government through their X account.

At that time Ángela María Robledo, through her X account, responded to criticism related to her recent appointment to the board of directors of Ecopetrol. She stated that her inclusion in the team has the main objective of enriching the company with a more human perspective in its operations and strategies.

"Against all odds we came to the new board of @Ecopetrol to strengthen its human face. President @petrogustavo, count on my dedication and commitment to accompany this exciting stage of a company that assumes 100% the Life Care project," said Robledo.

On this issue, after criticism of the new board of directors of Ecopetrol, Gustavo Bolívar came out to defend it on that occasion saying: "Previous Ecopetrol Boards involved $20 billion between the negotiations of Reficar, Bioenergy and OIG of Peru. Not counting the oil theft. That's why it hurts them that honest people come to the new board. RT This is the change. "If you want to steal again, win the elections."

On the other hand, regarding the aforementioned cow, the previous publication is not the only publication in which Hernán Cadavid has come out in defense of the initiative, since recently in another of his messages within his X profile he responded to the president of the Republic, Gustavo Petro Urrego, who shared article 316 of the penal code, with which according to the head of state the "cow" organized by Julián Rendón could be affected.

Faced with the latter, Cadavid responded to the president as follows: "Absolute rejection of this judicial threat that @petrogustavo makes against the Governor of Antioquia. In addition to being reckless and threatening, completely ignorant. A danger. Again we tell you: Do not threaten Antioquia anymore." With Infobae
