Fitch Ratings has affirmed Ecopetrol's global credit rating at BB with a stable outlook, highlighting the company's robust financial profile, strong liquidity, and stable operating metrics. The standalone credit profile remains investment grade at bbb-, comparable to international peers. Fitch also noted Ecopetrol's strong cash position, broad capital market access, and manageable debt maturity, expecting no refinancing issues in 2027. This affirmation underscores Ecopetrol's solid financial health amid its extensive operations across the Americas in energy and infrastructure sectors.

Ecopetrol's credit rating affirmation by Fitch highlights its financial strength, yet on Pluang the stock is down 0.48% at USD 17.68 as of Oct 21, 2026 09:21 WIB. The market cap stands at $36.53 billion with a dividend yield of 3.65%, while most investors are selling with 97% sell order activity.
